

JUNIOR/INTERMEDIATE SOLICITOR:

A general practice Solicitor is required for well-established and forward-thinking practice in Levin. This is a junior/intermediate position requiring 1 – 3 years' experience. Work will initially be a varied mix of property and commercial law with opportunities for developing or utilising a speciality. This is an opportunity to join a collegial team at a leading firm in the Manawatu/Horowhenua/Kapiti Regions.

With this position, there is strong potential for career development. In addition to technical ability, your qualities will include a positive attitude, dedication to client service, a business-like approach to practice and enjoy being part of a team.

Your day to day will involve matters relating to but not limited to:

- Residential, rural and commercial property transactions;
- Commercial lease drafting, reviews and negotiations;
- Subdivision and property developments;
- Meeting with clients to provide sound advice, working on files from start to end with partner supervision.
