An opportunity to join a collegial team at a leading firm in the Manawatu/Horowhenua region.

We are now looking to recruit two commercial lawyers to join their growing firm. CS Law has a strong reputation in the market and works with clients that range from individuals, developers to large businesses in NZ.

One of CS Law's areas of growth is in commercial law, whether it be existing clients instructing the firm on commercial property transactions or new clients that need sound business advice on commercial decisions, the team at CS Law are well-positioned to take on more work. They offer a friendly, modern and flexible environment that is uniquely geared towards your career development while encouraging a good work/life balance environment (rarely working overtime).

Working with a highly regarded commercial Partner and experienced legal support staff in the team, this role would suit ambitious and enthusiastic lawyers keen to take a step up in responsibility and establish themselves for all matters commercial and property related. Whether you are at an intermediate level and would like a more diverse mix of work, or you're a senior lawyer and would like to work more autonomously on complex files, this could be the right opportunity for you.

Your day-to-day will involve matters relating to (but not limited to):

- Residential, rural and commercial property transactions;
- Commercial lease drafting, reviews and negotiations;
- Subdivision and property developments;
- Commercial work including company structuring, partnership agreements, business transactions, franchise agreements and advising clients on joint venture arrangements;
- Trusts, wealth and succession planning advice; and
- Meeting with clients to provide sound advice, working on files from start to end with partner supervision.

About you

- 3+ year's PQE as a NZ qualified lawyer;
- Some relevant property and/or commercial law experience;
- Interested in furthering your experience in these areas, but able to turn your hand to private client work (you'll be part of a collaborative team that services local clients); and
- Good communication and interpersonal skills;
- Client focused and with commercial acumen.

Perhaps you'd like to escape the bigger city rat race to relocate to the Manawatu/Horowhenua region for lifestyle reasons? Likewise, you might have family ties to the region and waiting for the right opportunity to return to the region? or you may already live in the region and seeking a new challenge? Whichever way, make an enquiry and we can tell you more about this unique opportunity.
